A statement from the Josh Tenorio & Tina Muña-Barnes Campaign

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 26, 2026

The remarks made by today's event emcee were hurtful, inappropriate, and do not reflect the values of the Josh Tenorio and Tina Muña Barnes Campaign.

We apologize to every person with a disability, to their families, and to everyone who was hurt by those remarks.

Joe Meno has accepted full responsibility for his words and has issued a public apology.

For Josh and Tina, respect, dignity, and inclusion are not campaign slogans. They have guided their lives and their public service. Tina Muña Barnes served as Deputy Director of the Department of Integrated Services for Individuals with Disabilities, working alongside individuals with disabilities and their families. Josh Tenorio has long championed investments that help people with disabilities live more independently in their own homes and communities.

That is why today's remarks were so disappointing. They have no place in this campaign.

To everyone who was hurt, we are sorry. We will learn from this moment, and we will continue this campaign in a way that reflects the dignity, compassion, and respect that every member of our community deserves.

Let's Go Guam!
